B..BUT YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND. I TRIED TO TELL YOU ...REALLY I DID!
The END

Funny, how quickly a rumor can spread. It can hop over mountains and span ocean lengths. Different languages aren't even a barrier! And so within a space of two months, all over the world they heard the idea of this young man. Therefore the General Staffs of NATO, SEATO, BEATO, and NEATO decided the time had come to do something about the matter. So they invited this young man to tell them exactly what he had in mind in regard to fighting forces.

"The man who does the fighting is a worker," he began. "He has a job to do. Of course he puts his life in a risky situation. But so do workers in other fields. The man working on a high tension tower is also taking a risk; the fellow deep down in a coal mine never knows when the explosion will trap him for eternity; and the taxi driver will never know when his cab collides with a big trailer.

Now if all the other workers can unite in a union, then the same should hold true for your fighting man. I want to enlist every soldier, sailor, marine, air pilot, in my union. Now here are the benefits I propose to give:

First of all, we got to have a six hour day for our fighting men. If you can send in another shift of soldiers to take over, then that is o.k. with me. Otherwise, they go back for a good rest. And you have to get something else straight. From now on, it is a six hour day, five days a week only in which the fighting man has to serve. You can't expect like in the old days for a fellow to go on fighting until he is either killed or drops dead from sheer exhaustion.

Second, in any other job a fellow can take his wife and kids with him. You big brass can do that. So this is the rule you must follow: If a soldier gets married, he gets a paid vacation and honeymoon. At least two months. Then his bride goes with him. It is up to you to figure out that it may be best and economically cheaper to keep a soldier and his family in one place and not move them around the world. That's your headache, not mine. But it is a fundamental demand.

Third, you fellows have been getting away with murder for a long long time. If a soldier disobeys any officer or non-com, then there is trouble. You even may court-martial him. Just imagine, if a union salesman in a shop was put in the brig for two months because he didn't salute or obey the floor-walker. This old crazy idea is for the birds. From now on, if there is any dispute between one of my unionized soldiers and any superiors, we suspend the superior. And bring charges against him.

Fourth, this crazy idea of having special privileges for brass is finished. No more officer's club. No more saluting. No more special insignias for officers. You all dress alike only if you so wish to. Get this straight. A soldier from now on can design his own uniform and wear it. Only thing prohibited is the insignia to show one man is superior to another.

Fifth, this idea of a draft has to go. We use a national lottery to get the needed men. When a soldier is thus selected, he is entitled to a second drawing. To see how much money he can win. Lowest prize is $7,500 and the highest prize is $125,000. Now you got an incentive. But get it straight. The prize money is tax exempt — federal, state, and local.

Sixth, for a period of half a year, every new fighting man should have a chance to see all branches of our armed services, before making up his mind where he wants to serve. Isn't it a bit silly for a fellow to join the navy — and then find out he gets seasick when he even looks at a glass of water? Must a fellow take a jump from a plane to learn he is absent minded and forgot to take his parachute with him? And why does a fellow have to get into a tank for three years and then find out he has claustrophobia? My plan avoids misfits.

Seventh, and I know you brass want to hear this. Every month you take one buck off the pay of a fighting man. That goes to me because I am the unionizer. I got the final word to say in any dispute that comes up. And get it straight, you too have to join my union, pay dues, and do what I tell you. Even if that means walking on a picket line. No discussion. You take my plan or else....all fighting men will go out on a strike!"
